SOME TIME AGO ZOG AND ZIG LANDED THEIR SPACE GRAFT NEAR THE MARITIME MUSEUM. THEY WERE SURPRISED TO NOTICE THEIR SHIP LOOKED A LOT LIKE THE TOP OF THE MUSEUM. WHEN THEY ENTERED, THEY HAD AN EVEN BIGGER SHOCK! THE WALLS OF THE HUGE LOBBY WERE COVERED WITH A FANTASTIC MURAL.

THEY HAD HEARD STORIES PASSED DOWN
ABOUT A WEIRD LOOKING LIFE FORM THAT VISITED THEIR HOME FROM A PLANET CALLED
EARTH ABOUT 70 YEARS AGD. HE HAD TAKEN LOTS OF PICTURES AND THEN DISAPPEARED.

ZIG, LOOK AT THIS! IT LOOKS LIKE US!

ZIG, REMEMBER THAT OLD FAMILY ALBUM WE WERE LOOKING AT BEFORE WE LEFT FOR EARTH? THERE WAS A LETTER INSIDE WRITTEN BY COUSIN CLEW 70 YEARS AGO, BUT THERE ARE MISSING WORDS.

EXTRA COMIC CREDIT: LOOK UP CLEW, FID, VANG

Dear Family,

May 28, 1937

Today an oddball from some place called _____ paid us a visit. Of course we were very excited even though he was ugly and smelled bad. He said he was an artist and his name was ______. He took lots of pictures of all the family. Grandma Zag even agreed to smile and Grandpa Zig slithered out of his shell. He said he was going to paint a _____ of us on the wall of a building in _____.

I wonder if he ever did?

Love, Cousin Clew Need a clue? Look closely at the comic.